

Forgive My Unbelief
Nathan Zwald

Sin that limits my convictions
A faith that struggles day by day
Doubt that always sets conditions
And a walk that often leads me astray

Lord I've been praying
Take these burdens off from me
Trying with feeble legs
To follow at Your feet
But sometimes I stumble

But You are my victory
You are the triumph promised me
Lord I believe but forgive my unbelief
I know that I can be set free
My ransom paid at Calvary
Lord I believe, please forgive my unbelief

I wait in quiet desperation
For healing oil to cover me
You understand my tribulations
Holy Spirit pour mercy over me

Lord I've been praying
Lift this weight that smothers me
Trying with my feeble faith
To lay it at your feet
But sometimes I struggle
