

Just Wait

Nathan Zwald

Be my guide in this wilderness
Deliver me from my foolishness
I'm not able to open my eyes
My throat's so dry
And I find I'm too tired to cry

You strengthen me
Comfort me
Always, always
You carry me
Deliver me
Always, always

How long must I wait
How long must I try my patience
When hope seems to fly away I wait
I don't know what's in store so I will just wait

Let not those who wait patiently
Be hindered by my apathy
Sometimes I can't help but question why
Or criticize your timing in my life
